Please call the office for prayer requests at 801-255-8902 or email office@sjtwchurch.org. As we get new names to add to the prayer list, the oldest ones will be taken off.

Thank you once again for your continued prayers for myself as well as for the other priests and our Bishop. Like you, we long to be reunited once again and to celebrate with you around the Lords table.

As you heard, Governor Herbert has relaxed some of the social distancing rules last week. In turn, Bishop Solis distributed guidelines to all the parishes and missions throughout the diocese stating that if we were able to ensure the safety of our members, that we could allow up to 20 participants at mass. Over the past few weeks, I have heard from many of you who have expressed a strong desire to once again attend Mass and receive the precious body of our Lord and Savior. But, at the same time, they quickly add that they are worried about returning too quickly out of concerns for their safety and the safety of others.

I have spent the last several days and nights praying for the Holy Spirit to guide me in the decision as to the most appropriate time to reopen. Considering that so many of our parishioners are seniors and some, like myself, have other health factors, I have decided to remain cautious and postpone allowing additional members to attend Mass at this time. While I realize that this is a disappointment for all of you, keep in mind that the new guidelines would only allow a very small number of additional members to attend. After accounting for myself, Deacon Sunday, Tristan and Edgar (who handles the video stream), Agnes Yoon and Susan Conner, who provide our beautiful music and singing, that would only allow an additional 14 to attend. I would hate for anyone to arrive for Mass and not be able to come in because we had already reached capacity. For all these reasons I feel it best to wait until we have greater assurance of everyone's safety.

I realize that some parishes have decided to try the 20-participant rule to see if they can make it work for their parish. I will be speaking with those pastors in the coming weeks to learn from them. I will be revisiting this decision towards the end of May and welcome your input. In the meantime, I ask that you join me in praying to Our Blessed Mother for her protection and guidance.

Remember, under the current dispensation rules, viewing Mass via our Facebook page (or any of the many online Masses available) and reciting the Spiritual Communion prayer (see the prayer below) fulfills your Sunday obligation.

~ Reminders ~

Drive Through Confessions Are Open!

Fr. Javier is available for confessions every Tuesday and Thursday from 10 am to noon and 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm.

Mass Online

Remember, you can join our Live Stream via Facebook of Sunday and daily Mass. Sunday Mass is 9:00am in English and 11:00am in Spanish. Daily Mass is Monday thru Friday 9:00am English and 4:00pm Spanish.

Did you know we have a YouTube Page

We need 1000 subscribers on our youtube page in order to begin live-streaming our liturgies on mobile devices. Will you please help? Once we hit 1000 subscribers we will begin live-streaming masses for those who do not have access to Facebook. Until then, the best we can do is stream them on Facebook. Let's see if we can get 1000 subscribers before the Feast of Saint Joseph our Parish Patron (May 1st).

Finally, because things can change quickly, it is our desire to keep you informed of any updates as they develop, please follow us on Facebook and keep your eyes open to our Flocknote messages.

I pray for each of you and am anxious for the time that we can once again celebrate the Lords Supper together.

Yours in Christ, Father Javier Virgen
